

Built in 1788, the Georgian Theatre Royal is Britain's most complete Georgian playhouse in its original form. The Friends provide invaluable financial support to the year-round programme of drama, dance, comedy, music and family shows, as well as support for the Georgian's popular youth theatre classes and other educational workshops.

Guided tours of the theatre allow visitors the chance to go behind the scenes and view Britain's oldest scenery, The Woodland Scene. The Friends actively support and extend the theatre's "Living Theatre Museum" by organising a series of talks and related social events. You can count on the Friends to provide a friendly welcome to all that the theatre offers!

A warm invitation awaits!
